

LAURIE MCCRORY

Originally from South Florida, Laurie began her professional dance career at the age of 18 as a dancer at the Walt Disney World theme parks. She has danced and performed her way through Disney, which included various shows in the Magic Kingdom, MGM Studios, Epcot Center, Disney Convention shows, and Disney promotional videos for upcoming movies and attractions.

Laurie has been seen in commercials such as Shoe Carnival, Disney's West Side and Pleasure Island.

Her TV credits include: SuperBoy, Heaven On Earth, and a music video from country artist Razzy Bailey.

She has been seen in the movie WaterBoy and featured in Independent films as well.

Her Industrial credits (both acting and dancing) include: Burdines, Moretti Beer, Miller Lite, Orlando Magic's Fandemonium, Scruples, Redken, Southern Women's Convention, and The Fantasia Ball amongst others.

Her choreography has been seen at the House of Blues in Orlando, Capones Dinner Theatre in Orlando, television pilots, The Orlando Roller Gators, Various College Stage productions including FAME and West Side Story, various festivals and award winning dance competition teams.

Some of her stage credits include: Will Roger's Follies – Ziegfield Girl; "Phoebe" from Friends (look-a-like) at Universal Studios-Orlando and Capones Dinner Theatre – Lead- "Bunny June."

Laurie is now the owner of Dance Academy of Santa Rosa located in Milton. She has a college age daughter who attends UCF and a husband who she adores and loves to share the stage with when she gets the chance.